

Previous Year - 2018 WEAAD Activities Around New York State

APS WEAAD activities around NYS

Read Aug 2018 OCFS Adult Services Newsletter

Broome County - Family Violence Prevention Council

June 8 - Live segment on WBNG-TV local noon news.

June 10 - 5:30 am, Ch 2; 12:30 pm, Ch 4, 7:00 am, WNBH 1290 Radio - sponsored by Broome County Council of Churches.

June 15 - New public service announcement released on WBNG.

June 20 - 8:30 am-12:00, Senior Safety Event & Office for Aging Senior Picnic at SUNY Broome; free document shredding; Sheriff will collect old meds.

Erie County - Council on Elder Abuse

June 15 - Caring Cards Project, Reaching out to older adults facing isolation.

Plans to distribute 3,000+ cards & letters to Meals on Wheels recipients, elder abuse survivors, and others who could use a note to brighten their day.

Contact Katie Earl for more info or to help by contributing notes, cards, pictures for distribution.

Greene County - Village of Tannersville

June 14, 6:00 pm - Tannersville Safe at Home Project Kickoff

Launch of innovative community program and task force - public is invited

Flyer with details

Monroe County - Upstate Elder Abuse Center at Lifespan

June 9 - Guest essayist column in Democrat & Chronicle

June 15

County Executive Proclamation presented at Lifespan E-MDT meeting.

160+ Lifespan staff encouraged to wear purple in recognition of WEAAD.

Purple lights will shine on buildings around Rochester.

Community leaders will receive purple cookies to help promote awareness.

Press release to highlight activities and increase public awareness.

Nassau County

Fri, June 15, 11:30 am

Front Steps, Nassau County Executive Building

County Executive Laura Curran, Police Commissioner Patrick Ryder, DSS Commissioner John Imhof, DSS, APS Director Sarah Smith, District Attorney Madeline Singas, and ADA Arlene Markarian, Elder Abuse Unit Chief, will recognize WEAAD, raise public awareness, and provide information about how to help protect older adults in Nassau County.